

gTREND Report

Table of Contents

Book One: The Flux Gen—Modern technology is reprogramming today's teenager

I. Chapter 1: The Life of the Gadget-Bound—Technology has impacted the way teen society works.

- a. iJunkies—The world at the touch of a button
- b. Technomadism—Wireless life
- c. TechnoBling—Technology must look good in addition to working well
- d. Marketing Implications

II. Chapter 2: Insulationships—How technology is mediating teens' relationship with the world around them

- a. The Neighbornet—Teen world expanded on the net
- b. Ego Anglers—Looking for positive strokes on the net
- c. The Digital Disguise—Transforming identities on the net
- d. ACME Auteur—Creating, Producing & Directing on the net
- e. Marketing Implications

III. Chapter 3: Consequences— The Flux Gen's unique neuroses created by the technological world

- a. Life Caching—Memory replaced by knowing where to find it
- b. Brain Blur—Multi-tasking in 2006
- c. Dataddiction—Teens can't live without the web
- d. The Chill-Challenged—Idle hands? Not today's teens.
- e. Marketing Implications

Book Two: The Societal Burden—Modern teens' rebellious nature suppressed by societal expectations

IV. Chapter 1: The Cultural Bully—Teens are pushed, pulled and pressured by society

- a. The Mid-Pubescent Crisis—Growing up at 11
- b. The Charity of Me—Ulterior motives for Charity & Volunteerism
- c. MTVneer—Pressure to look and act like TV teens
- d. Mock Maturity—Pushing teens to grow up, while protecting them
- e. Surreality—Life will be harder than they expect
- f. Marketing Implications

For more information, contact Gary Rudman at GTR Consulting 415 713-7852 or gary@gtrconsulting.com